

June 10-12, 2009

The Greying Nation: Keeping Ahead of the Wave

Edmonton, Alberta, Canada.

The conference will address how the health care sector and service providers can prepare for the growing number of seniors requiring services. Conference topics include: innovative technologies; adaptive housing; "green" living; determinants of health; aging well; and perspectives on aging. We are pleased to welcome Dr. David Suzuki, who will provide the keynote address, as well as other internationally recognized speakers.

For more information and to register: www.capitalhealth.ca/greyingnation2009